Simple Peek-a-boo game

Cover your face with both of your hands.
Slowly remove your hands from your face.
Smile.
Gently say "peekaboo".

Babies are easily overwhelmed, so watch for cues:
If your baby turns their head to the side or startles when you say "boo," take a break and try again later.

Hide behind an object and pop out
Use surprised or happy facial expressions when you appear.

Respond to the reaction of your baby.

Try hiding your face behind a book or a teddy bear and pop out from different sides.
