Early Years Class Teacher

Dulwich Wood Nursery School is a fun, happy and creative school. We have AMAZING gardens, a focus on outdoor learning and rich well organised indoor provision.

We are passionately committed to a play-based child-centred approach to learning. Our planning is adapted 'in the moment' in response to children's explorations and fascinations.

We are looking for an inspirational Early Years Teacher to join our friendly and supportive team in September 2020, or earlier if possible. Are you the innovative, creative teacher that we that we are looking for?

We are committed to continued professional development and have a highly motivated and supportive Leadership Team.

Applications are welcome from experienced teachers and newly qualified teachers.

NQTs at Dulwich Wood are fully supported by the leadership team, and have access to the full Southwark Support Programme.

We are one minute's walk from Sydenham Hill railway station and just ten minutes' walk from Gipsy Hill station.
